Ward|Blake Architects is built on a distinctive vision: Be provocative in thought, flexible in nature, and disciplined in execution. Since its inception, the firm has gained recognition for architecture that is sensitive to its environment and successfully integrated with its surroundings. Ward|Blake creates buildings that are tactile, modern, bioclimatically responsible, honestly expressed, technologically sound and artfully crafted.

The firm's architecture belies the passion, intelligence and care of its conception and execution. At once comfortable living places and dramatic structures, their designs elevate custom building to an extraordinary standard. Sidestepping the ordinary and shopworn, Ward|Blake strives to engage the client's unique taste, background, and sensitivity to create healthy environments that bring comfort and delight to its occupants.

"The project was so beautifully and tastefully done; and with such a deep understanding of the spirit of the land where it is located that I was moved to tears. Thank you for doing such exquisite work."
